Within the framework of the project PATRIMONY 2001, Mr Michael Naimark, an Arts and Media Specialist with Interval Research Corporation, is presently engaged in an important film project in several countries around the world where he is filming cultural and natural sites nominated in UNESCO's World Heritage List.

The aims of this project are to produce a very important film and photo collection of World Heritage Sites, to be used for scientific and educational purposes. UNESCO is the official partner in this action of the French Agency GAMMA and the Foundation LA CAIXA, Spain.

Any assistance and cooperation that may be given to Mr Naimark will be greatly appreciated.
